

PRESS RELEASE

ERRANT LICENSED MONEYLENDER TAN JOON HENG FINED $40,000

1. The Registry of Moneylenders, a division of the Insolvency and Public Trustee's Office, brought charges in the Subordinate Courts on 10 December 2012 against Tan Joon Heng, director of moneylending company E.H. Credit Pte Ltd.
2. E.H. Credit held a moneylending licence from 23 June 2010 to 22 June 2011, which was not renewed after it expired as investigations revealed that the licensee had committed offences which warranted prosecution.
3. On 27 May 2013, Tan pleaded guilty in the Subordinate Courts and was convicted on two out of six charges for recklessly furnishing false information to the Registrar, which is a breach under Section 24(7) of the Moneylenders Act. The remaining four charges, which are for the same breach, were taken into consideration by the Court for the purposes of sentencing.
4. Tan was sentenced in the Subordinate Courts to a fine of $40,000 (in default 80 days' imprisonment). Please refer to Annex A for the list of licensed moneylenders who have been convicted and fined since 2011.
5. The Registry carries out regular inspections of licensed moneylenders. Where breaches of moneylending laws are found, enforcement measures will be taken, including the suspension or revocation of licences, forfeiture of security deposits, warnings and prosecutions. Those convicted of breaches of the Moneylenders Act and Rules face a fine of up to $40,000 and/or an imprisonment term of up to two years on each charge.
