ERRANT LICENSED MONEYLENDER, TAN HOCK YONG, FINED $24,000

1. The Registry of Moneylenders, a division of the Insolvency and Public Trustee's Office, brought charges in the Subordinate Courts on 16 Dec 2013 against licensed moneylender Tan Hock Yong (陈福荣), 34 years old, the sole proprietor of moneylending business, Credit Paradise. Tan has been holding a moneylending licence since 13 October 2010.
2. On 10 February 2014, Tan pleaded guilty in the Subordinate Courts and was convicted on two out of five charges for recklessly furnishing false information to the Registrar, which is a breach under Section 24(7) of the Moneylenders Act. The remaining three charges, which are for the same breaches, were taken into consideration by the Court for the purposes of sentencing.
3. Tan was sentenced in the Subordinate Courts to a fine of $24,000 (in default eight weeks' imprisonment). He will also be required to show cause to the Registrar as to why his licence should not be revoked and his security deposit forfeited. Twenty-two licensed moneylenders have been convicted and fined since 2011 (see Annex A).
4. The Registry carries out regular inspections of licensed moneylenders. Where breaches of moneylending laws are found, enforcement measures are taken, including the suspension or revocation of licences, forfeiture of security deposits, warnings and prosecutions. Those convicted of breaches of the Moneylenders Act and Rules face a fine of up to $40,000 and/or an imprisonment term of up to two years on each charge.
